IMPRISONMENT

The defendant is committed to the custody of the United States Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a total term of 37 months.

The Court recommends that Immigration and Customs Enforcement begin removal proceedings during service of sentence.

Defendant Alvaro Ornelas-Salcido's offense level is 20, and his criminal history category is II, establishing an advisory guidelines sentence range of 37 to 46 months. Ornelas-Salcido reentered the United States without legal authorization. The Court has considered the guideline range established for the applicable category of offense committed by the applicable category of defendant. The Court also takes into consideration other sentencing goals. Specifically, the Court has also considered the factors set forth in 18 U.S.C. § 3553(a)(1)-(7).

The Court has considered Ornelas-Salcido's request for a variance from the sentencing range and concludes that the punishment that is set forth in the guidelines is appropriate for this sort of offense. The Court believes a sentence at the low end of the guideline range reflects the seriousness of the offense, promotes respect for the law, provides just punishment, affords adequate deterrence, protects the public, and otherwise fully reflects the factors embodied in 18 U.S.C. § 3553(a). The Court, therefore, sentences Ornelas-Salcido to a term of 37 months in the custody of the Bureau of Prisons.

Pursuant to § 5E1.2 of the United States Sentencing Guidelines, the Court shall impose a fine in all cases, except where the defendant establishes that he is unable to pay and is not likely to become able to pay any fine. For an offense level of 20, the guidelines establish a fine range of $7,500.00 to $75,000.00. Based on Ornelas-Salcido's minimal financial resources, the Court does not believe that a fine within the guidelines range is appropriate. On the other hand, Ornelas-Salcido does have some assets in the United States, and the Court believes that some fine is necessary given these assets. The Court, therefore, believes a variance from the guideline range is appropriate and will require Ornelas-Salcido to pay a fine of $500.00. The Court believes that this fine is sufficient, taken together with Ornelas-Salcido's 37-month sentence, to provide just punishment, to reflect the seriousness of the offense, to promote respect for the law, and to provide adequate deterrence.

☒ The court makes these recommendations to the Bureau of Prisons:

The Court first recommends Safford Federal Correctional Institution, Safford, Arizona and secondarily recommends Florence Federal Correctional Institution, Florence, Colorado, if eligible.

- ☒ The defendant is remanded to the custody of the United States Marshal.
- ☐ The defendant must surrender to the United States Marshal for this district:

 - ☐ as notified by the United States Marshal.
- ☐ The defendant must surrender for service of sentence at the institution designated by the Bureau of Prisons:
